

Clustering

Objectives:

At the end of this episode, I will be able to:

1. Be able to describe the clustering solution of Firepower
2. Explain the required components

Additional resources used during the episode can be obtained using the download link on the overview episode.

Remember:

- Clustering is only available on certain models (9300 and 4100)
- The cluster link is key
- There is a cluster control node and data nodes
- Clustering works well with VSS and/or vPC
